FOREWORD

We, the Southwood Yearbook Staff, proudly present our 1964 Lance.

We have done our best to catch glimpses of our school life so that in years to come, the highlighted events of '63-'64 will not fade from memory.

In later years as you turn these pages, we hope this book will help you recall more vividly the happy and sad times at Southwood. If then you are satisfied, we will have fulfilled the task we were called upon to do.

DR. WAGGONER
Principal

Greetings:

I wish to congratulate the Lance Staff, the seniors of 1964, and the students of Southwood High School for this excellent edition of the Lance and for your other fine achievements this year. It has been a genuine pleasure to be so closely associated with you. I hope sincerely that you continue as you have begun.

It was Emerson who said, "Hitch your wagon to a star. Let us lag not in paltry works which serve our pot and bag alone." I trust that each of you will pick out one of the higher and brighter stars and travel toward it night and day. The way seems long, the detours many, but steady determination to reach your goal is fundamental to success. May you never falter. Three wise men guided by a star found the Christ child.

Sherman H. Waggoner

HOMECOMING

My Southwood Friends.

I was very fortunate to get to spend one whole year in your country, and I was even more fortunate to get to spend it here at Southwood. Thanks to you, my friends and my teachers, it has been the most wonderful year of my life.

I think that I have learned a lot about the United States, and it means a lot to me now. It has become my second home. Naturally I also hope that you have learned a little about the kingdom of Sweden.

To me the nicest thing is that I can hardly believe that we are of different nationalities. You are my friends, and I will never forget you. I want to thank all of you for making my stay over here such a wonderful experience, and I hope that I will see you again.

Your Swedish friend,
Berith Brannstrom

A.F.S.

Charles Boswell, summer exchange student to Finland, Mr. Weekley, chairman of local A.F.S. committee, Mike Emrick, student representative, Berith Brannstrom, exchange student from Sweden.

The staff . . . hard(?) at work.

As the editors of the 1964 Lance, we hope that the many hours that we and our staff spent on this yearbook will reap its rewards in satisfaction to the reader.

As we prepare this edition for publication we do not know whether we have been successful in our endeavor.

When you as readers voice your opinion then we shall know the true value of our work.

Sincerely,
SHARON LONG
MIKE EMRICK

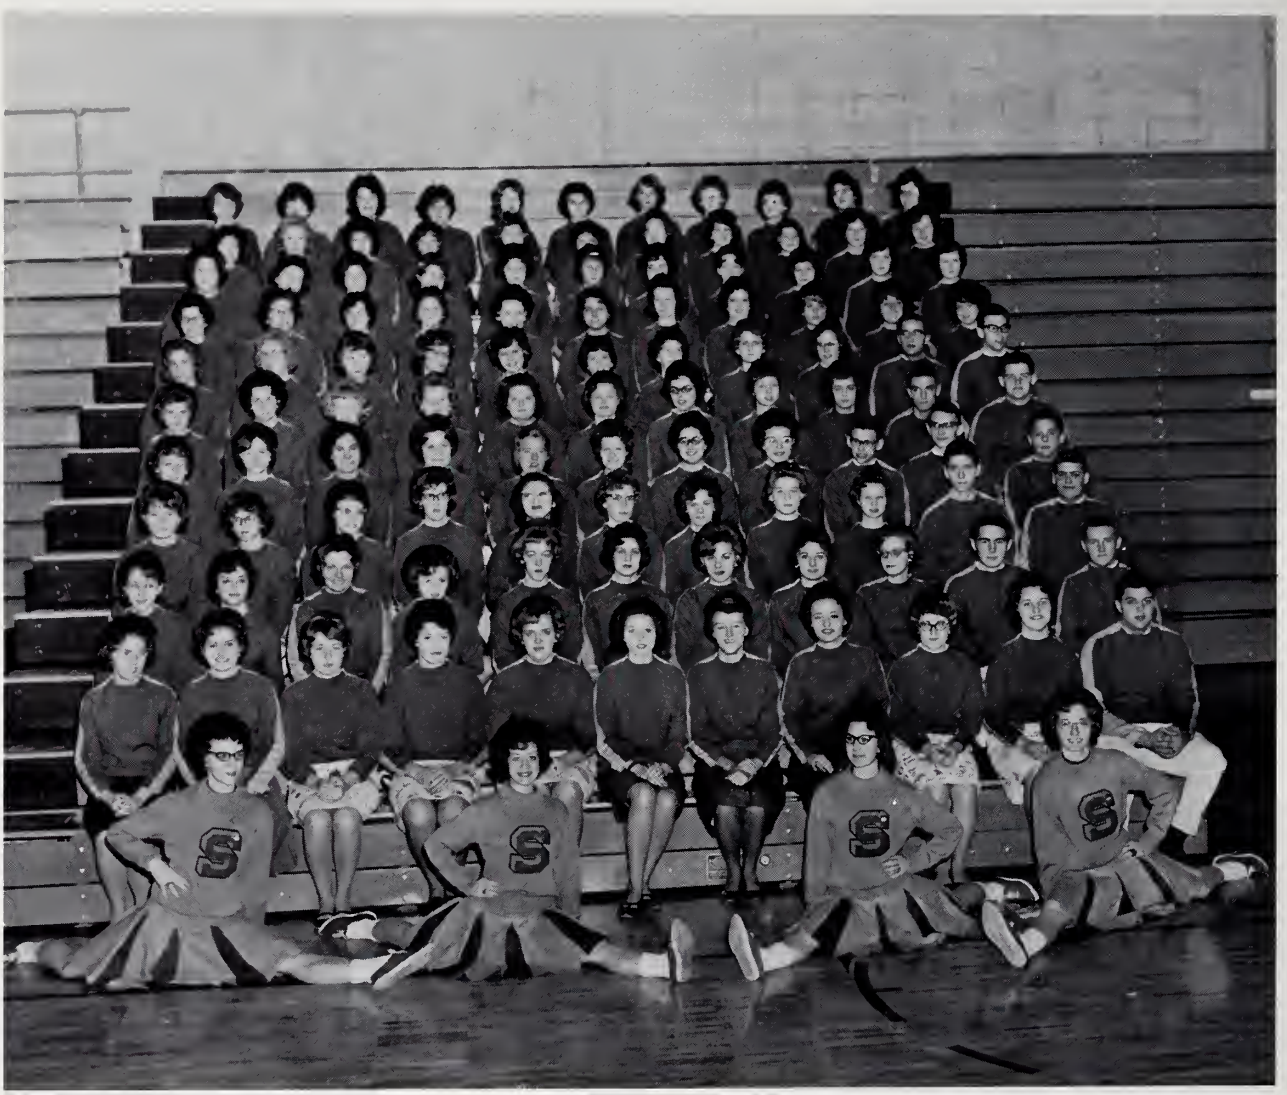
BOOSTER CLUB



Pictured above is the Southwood Booster Club, one of the most loyal organizations of the school. They followed the team from the frozen autumn football games to the final gun of the Saturday afternoon game of the Manchester sectional.

They highlighted the last December home game with White's by presenting a clever Christmas spectacle.

The club sponsored sock hops during the year and were always present to show their support of our Knights' athletic teams.
